

Recent Incidents/Reports

Member of Safety Services staff reported seeing a toddler seated at the lab bench playing with something while his guardian worked nearby.

Member of CLS staff reported a CLS researcher wheeling a baby in a pram through JBC Floor 1.

Lab Managers expressed concern over (1) staff bringing children through the labs to get to offices within the WTB/JBC link area and (2) general increase in number of children being brought into or through the labs.

Child in a parent's office dialled the Emergency Services while playing with the phone.