Removing Radioactive Contamination

- Contamination detected using contamination monitors should be removed until cps = background cps.

- Contamination detected by wipe testing should be removed until cps < twice background.

- When contamination cannot be removed, consult your RPS.

Note: Remember to check the back wall of the dispensing area as part of your regular contamination monitoring routine.